Stars of the Week

Acorns star of the week is Violet for sustained progress with her reading.

Oaks star of the week is Iyla for her well-planned and very enjoyable independent write.

Mighty Oaks Learner of the Week

This week, the work of everyone in the class was celebrated, with excerpts shared from their writing, a discussion about the challenges they have faced in mathematics and how they overcame misconceptions in science.

TT Rockstars

Bibury had the highest average score per pupil of all the DGAT schools that took part. Of the 434 Primary Schools in this region that participated, we were 27th. A well done to all the pupils who took part.

Extra Layers

The very cold weather is finally upon us and as we are still having to ventilate the school as per the government guidelines due to COVID19, windows and doors are kept open as and when possible. Please send your child into school with extra layers to wear to keep warm. These layers must be worn underneath school jumpers not instead of. Children may wear their coats in the classroom during lessons if they wish.

Message from the Bibury PTA

Thank you for your donations towards our PTA Christmas tombola stall. We hope that you will be able to join us tomorrow at the Village Christmas Event, in Bibury Village hall, between 11am - 1pm where cakes, mulled wine, Christmas gifts and much more will be for sale. Thank you for your continued support.

Play Safe

This new initiative was launched at the weekend in collaboration with the FA and the NSPCC. It is all about checking parents are making sure that they have the right information about their children's football clubs around who is safeguarding their child. Link here
